

Reconnecting with the Heart of Frontline Practice

The Heart of Frontline Practice
collaborative
group proudly
presents:

#HeartofPractice ♥

The second national seminar to provide Ireland's frontline practitioners with a safe and nourishing on-line space to reflect on the impact of their work.

Tuesday 25th May 2021

9.30am - 3.30pm

Open to all frontline practitioners working in public, private or community roles in healthcare, social care, education and the justice sector.

Places are limited and booking is required before 11th of May. Tickets €50 via Eventbrite

For more information email sabrina@ageisteacht.com

Speakers:

Dr Tim Dartington

'Spaces to think'

Dr Aisling McMahon

'Vulnerability and humility in supervision relationships'

Dr Kate Lucre

'The Compassionate Kitbag: practical ways to develop our compassionate identity'